

git init → initialize locally a folder with the name of the folder you're in hub create → create that folder in the git hub account git add . → add all folder and documents in that directory in the one created in git git commit -m « comment » → commit the changes to git git push origin master → finalization git clone link → download rm -rf .git → delete the hidden folder